March 29 - April 1, 2016 | Manchester Grand Hyatt | San Diego, California
Dear Members of the AUR, Affiliated Academic Societies, and Guests:

Welcome to the 64th Annual Meeting of the Association of University Radiologists! The 2016 meeting will be held at the Manchester Grand Hyatt Hotel in San Diego.

The hotel is situated in downtown San Diego, overlooking San Diego Bay and Coronado Island. In addition to the beautiful views, San Diego offers great restaurants and nightlife, including the nearby Headquarters at Seaport Village and the Gaslamp Quarter. The hotel is also close to the world famous San Diego Zoo, San Diego Zoo Safari Park, Balboa Park, Sea World, and the USS Midway Museum.

The AUR Annual Meeting is a great place to share ideas and develop collaborations with colleagues. The theme for the 2016 meeting is “Diversity, Inclusion, and Cultural Competency in Academic Radiology.” The Program Committees of the Association of University Radiologists (AUR), the Society of Chairs of Academic Radiology Departments (SCARD), the Association of Program Directors in Radiology (APDR), the American Alliance of Academic Chief Residents in Radiology (A³CR³), the Alliance of Clinician – Educators in Radiology (ACER), the Alliance of Medical Student Educators in Radiology (AMSER), the Radiology Alliance for Health Services Research (RAHSR), the Radiology Research Alliance (RRA), the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (SNMMI), and the Association of Program Coordinators in Radiology (APCR) have worked together to create a wonderful program, including sessions on clinical practice, education, research, and administration.

The 2016 meeting is scheduled from Tuesday, March 29 to Friday, April 1. I look forward to visiting with you at the AUR Welcome Reception aboard the Admiral Hornblower in San Diego Bay. The meeting will close with the annual AUR Banquet and Awards Ceremony, honoring our colleagues who have made exceptional contributions to academic radiology.

On behalf of all the organizations under the AUR umbrella, I look forward to welcoming you to our 64th Annual Meeting. See you in San Diego!

Sincerely,

Gary

Gary J. Whitman, MD, FACR
President
General Information

AUR 64th Annual Meeting

CME Information
This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the Radiological Society of North America (RSNA) and the Association of University Radiologists (AUR). The RSNA is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement
The Radiological Society of North America designates this live activity for a maximum of 35.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Target Audience
Radiologists, researchers, or other allied health professionals, trainees, and administrators in academic radiology.

Learning Objectives
At the conclusion of this live activity, participants will be able to:

• Articulate strategies to enhance the diversity of Radiology faculty and trainees
• Develop solutions to build a departmental culture to celebrate diversity in race, gender, and generations in the radiology workforce
• Assess and discuss the latest innovations in radiology education and education research
• Implement patient-centered radiology concepts and practice
• Identify collaborative solutions to challenges facing academic radiology
• Discuss strategies to recruit talented medical students to the radiology discipline
• Identify changes in clinical radiology practice, education, and research in response to changes in the payment model
• Implement and conduct programs to improve the cultural competence in a radiology practice
• Implement social media and technology solutions in your practice to improve communication and networking
Self-Assessment Modules (SAMs)
Select courses at the AUR meeting will be available as SAM courses. Through the RSNA, AUR is able to offer self-assessment modules that meet the American Board of Radiology’s criteria for a self-assessment activity in the ABR Maintenance of Certification program. In addition to AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™, participants can earn SAM credits for each completed SAM course.

Fees:
AUR member: No Charge
AUR Non-member U.S. licensed physician: $50 per SAM

Registration and fees will be collected at the meeting.

Add Leadership to your Credentials: The Academy of Radiology Leadership and Management
The Academy of Radiology Leadership and Management (ARLM) is sponsored by five participating radiology education societies: AAARAD, ARRS, AUR, RSNA and SCARD. Launched in 2011, the ARLM helps medical imaging professionals enhance their professional development by requiring completion of education across six different learning domains. ARLM awards a Certificate of Achievement upon completion.

Several AUR sessions will qualify toward certificate requirements. For additional information and to see a complete list of course offerings, visit Radleaders.org.

AUR Welcome Reception
Join your colleagues aboard the Admiral Hornblower for an evening of hors d’oeuvres and cocktails. The Admiral Hornblower is a 151 foot newly restyled mega yacht with three spacious deck levels, including an expansive outside sun deck where you can enjoy the panoramic views of the San Diego Bay.

The Welcome Reception will be held on Wednesday, March 30 from 6:30pm – 8:30pm. The Admiral Hornblower will be docked at Seaport Village, a short walking distance from the Manchester Grand Hyatt. Boarding will begin promptly at 6:30pm. For those who would like a relaxing tour around the Bay, the yacht will depart at 8:30pm for a 45 minute cruise.
